

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued From 4th Page.)

vice conducted there by the pastor, the Rev. Frederick Raymond. Many beautiful flowers were given by the school-mates, friends and neighbors. Mr. Burns was one of the respected young men of this town, and will be greatly missed. He was 20 years old. He leaves a father and mother and two brothers who have the sympathy of this community.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

MONTPELIER.

Burt Dodge of Woodbury, who Thursday was convicted of keeping his children from school, was fined $10 and costs. In lieu of this he was committed to county jail for 60 days.

Col. J. G. Esey of the 1st Vermont regiment has appointed Clarence H. Senter of Montpelier inspector of rifle practice and ordnance with the rank of captain.

Charles W. Gammons of Cohasset, Mass., and J. Howard Edwards of Brookline, Mass., who for twelve years were partners in the insurance firm of James T. Phelps & Co. of Boston, have been appointed by President J. A. DeLoe of the National Life Insurance company of State agents for Massachusetts. The National has more than $18,000,000 life insurance in that State which was formerly looked after by James T. Phelps, first vice-president, who died a few months ago.

The store in the Walton block occupied for three years by J. J. Leland, dealer in sporting goods, was closed Saturday by Sheriff Tracy on foreclosure of a mortgage given in 1904 for $2,500 to J. W. Leland, his father. Mrs. Ella P. Leland, administrator of the latter's estate, ordered the foreclosure. An inventory of the stock will be taken this week.

Lieut. Harrie V. Hall of Burlington has been appointed by Major F. B. Thomas, adjutant of the first battalion of the 1st Vermont regiment, vice C. H. Senter, who has been appointed inspector of rifle practice. Lieut. Hall was adjutant under Major Thomas and was formerly familiar with the duties of the office.

Intelligence was received in Montpelier Saturday of the death in a hospital in Virginia of Henry C. Town, grandson of the late Henry S. Town of this city. Mr. Town was scalded while working as fireman on a steam boat and died two weeks later from the effects of his burns. He formerly resided in this city with his grandfather.

The prison board for Washington county is advertising in the local newspapers for the rental of five acres, more or less, of land suitable for raising potatoes, on which the prisoners in county jail can be put to work as soon as the season opens. A ready market for all early or late potatoes is guaranteed in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Peck have returned from Glens Falls, N. Y., where they were married early last week. The bride was formerly Miss Florence Barber, matron at Heaton hospital.

Philip D. Hornbrook, a clerk in the home office of the National Life Insurance company, and Mrs. Almira J. Newcomb, a local milliner, were married Tuesday at Lancaster, N. H. The judges of superior court, who were in town three days last week considering proposed changes in court rules, went to their homes Saturday afternoon. They will again convene here when they are ready to give out for publication the result of their deliberations.

The attorneys in Barre have voted to support Judge H. W. Scott for judge of probate for the district of Washington to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hiram Carleton. The vote was 10 to 2.

Following are the town officers: L. C. Moody, moderator; J. K. Fullerton, town clerk; G. W. Grover, first selectman; L. J. Roberts, second selectman; S. W. Gould, third selectman; C. C. Graves, treasurer; W. E. Thompson, overseer of the poor; W. O'Neill, constable and collector; C. Moody, J. A. Parker and E. B. Towne, auditors; C. C. Graves, trustee public money; George W. Morse, town grand juror; M. C. Barber, road commissioner; L. C. Moody, agent to prosecute and defend suits; L. C. Moody, school director for three years; H. C. Robinson, first lister for one year; G. W. Morse for two years; W. J. O'Neill for three years; Mrs. A. Lynde, school commissioner for five years; Dr. G. S. Edwell for two years; A. H. Smith, cemetery commissioner for five years; $350 was voted for permanent roads and a tax of 10 cents was voted.

The village officers elected Monday evening follow: H. C. Whitfield, president; E. E. Campbell, first trustee; E. E. Campbell, second trustee; J. K. Fullerton, clerk; E. J. Joshy, treasurer; W. J. O'Neill, collector of taxes; F. L. Knight, L. C. Moody and C. C. Graves, auditors; Frank Town, chief engineer; O. A. Lavelle, first assistant engineer; Horace Tatro, second assistant engineer; Frank Williams, Henry Carpenter and W. J. Redmond and B. E. Atcherson, the wardens; H. W. Borden, water commissioner; L. C. Moody, assessor; the village officers have bonds of the village not to exceed the sum of $25,000 to retire orders drawn to pay the expenses of the sewer system.

MORETOWN. During the past month there were 25 special Evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. An unusual interest has been manifested in the church since the first of the week. During this time twenty have been baptized. The Rev. G. P. Crowford, the pastor, has been assisted by several of the neighboring pastors.

WARREN. Miss Carol died February 25 of pneumonia, living less than a week after her illness. Her father, H. Bruce of Riverside had been hired to run the creamery and will move his family here soon. Mrs. William Elliott is in poor health. Gabe Senner will move this week to the farm he bought of A. E. Eldridge. E. H. Elliott was in Waterbury Saturday.

MIDDLESEX. Mrs. Walter Carr of South Barre is aiding in the care of her grandmother, who is very low. Mrs. Arthur Tate has gone from Mrs. A. C. Moulton's to her father's home in Moretown. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hills visited in Shady Hill the first of the week. H. Comstock has purchased the John Bean, Jr. farm and is to take possession the first of April. Dr. Stephenson is moving this week to Barre. Dr. Johnson comes this week to take up the practice of Dr. Stephenson. His family will be here next week. Presiding Elder Hunt of St. Albans will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday. Mrs. L. O. Wilder and son were in town the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodward. Harry Brooks went Monday to Brattleboro to close the trade for a farm which he purchased last week. Henry Brothers moved his family to Brattleboro Wednesday to the farm he purchased of H. Flint. Mrs. Fred Gaff is very low with no hopes of recovery. The young friends of George Alexander from Montpelier to the number of sixty-one met Friday evening at Silver Lodge Lodge to have last evening was in charge of the Rev. Alfred J. Wilson.

The marriage of Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamville and Miss Mary T. Foster of East Montpelier will take place in the Church of the Messiah Thursday evening, March 11, at eight o'clock.

NORTHFIELD.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Ellis died Saturday night after a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon by the Rev. G. L. Fortier and the body was placed in the tomb at Elmwood. The child was three weeks old. The Rev. G. L. Fortier assumed the pastorate of the Universalist Church Monday and will come here from St. Albans today. Mrs. John Nichols of Lyndon, Mrs. James C. Barre and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Concord, N. H., are in town, being called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Leonard Persons. Mrs. Persons recently suffered from a stroke which rendered her helpless on one side of her body. Her condition is considered critical owing in part to her advanced age.

Local Forecaster W. A. Shaw of the United States weather reports a mean temperature for February of 19 degrees, with a maximum of 32 on the 5th and a minimum of 17 below zero on the 4th. It was the warmest February since 1893. The average temperature of the month for the last 22 years being 15 degrees. The precipitation for the month amounted to 4.55 inches. The snowfall being 12.7 inches. It was the heaviest February precipitation in 22 years, the average for the month for that period being 2.82 inches. The prevailing wind was from the north, the total movement 6.66 miles, the average hourly velocity 9 miles and the maximum hourly velocity 26 miles, from the northwest on the 6th. The month was made up of eight clear, 11 cloudy, 11 rainy and 11 snowy days. Precipitation occurred on 14 days. Solar halos were noted on the 7th, 9th and 23d, and snow fell on the 16th, 19th, 26th and 27th. Martin Gellish, 75 years old, died Monday at his home at South Northfield following a general decline in health of several months' duration. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wheeler, and a son, George H. of Hartford, Conn., who was in town to attend the funeral which was held from the residence at the south village at two o'clock yesterday. The members of DeWitt Clinton Lodge of Masons attended. Mrs. Gellish was the center of the family. She was a regular attendant of the Episcopals who were closely identified with the early history of Northfield. He held various town offices with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. John Hurley, a cutter, was known here and in Montpelier, was taken to the State hospital at Waterbury Tuesday morning. He has been in feeble health for several months. Monday night he became seriously deranged and committed painful injuries upon his wife and daughter.

WATERBURY.

Robert W. Palmer, principal of the London high school, is at home for a two weeks' vacation. Andrew Brown returned to Burlington Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gay C. Scott, who were recently married at Hartford, Conn., arrived here Sunday evening. E. H. Lyford has purchased the Burleigh estate the home place for Rudolph Lyford. Mr. Lyford Bagley has returned from a week's visit in Burlington. Edward Cooley, who has been employed in Burlington, has returned and began work Monday with the Cooley Manufacturing company. Dr. E. H. Steele, Jr., is confined to the house by illness. Miss Stannard was at home from Montpelier Monday.

Following are the town officers: L. C. Moody, moderator; J. K. Fullerton, town clerk; G. W. Grover, first selectman; L. J. Roberts, second selectman; S. W. Gould, third selectman; C. C. Graves, treasurer; W. E. Thompson, overseer of the poor; W. O'Neill, constable and collector; C. Moody, J. A. Parker and E. B. Towne, auditors; C. C. Graves, trustee public money; George W. Morse, town grand juror; M. C. Barber, road commissioner; L. C. Moody, agent to prosecute and defend suits; L. C. Moody, school director for three years; H. C. Robinson, first lister for one year; G. W. Morse for two years; W. J. O'Neill for three years; Mrs. A. Lynde, school commissioner for five years; Dr. G. S. Edwell for two years; A. H. Smith, cemetery commissioner for five years; $350 was voted for permanent roads and a tax of 10 cents was voted.

The village officers elected Monday evening follow: H. C. Whitfield, president; E. E. Campbell, first trustee; E. E. Campbell, second trustee; J. K. Fullerton, clerk; E. J. Joshy, treasurer; W. J. O'Neill, collector of taxes; F. L. Knight, L. C. Moody and C. C. Graves, auditors; Frank Town, chief engineer; O. A. Lavelle, first assistant engineer; Horace Tatro, second assistant engineer; Frank Williams, Henry Carpenter and W. J. Redmond and B. E. Atcherson, the wardens; H. W. Borden, water commissioner; L. C. Moody, assessor; the village officers have bonds of the village not to exceed the sum of $25,000 to retire orders drawn to pay the expenses of the sewer system.

MORETOWN. During the past month there were 25 special Evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. An unusual interest has been manifested in the church since the first of the week. During this time twenty have been baptized. The Rev. G. P. Crowford, the pastor, has been assisted by several of the neighboring pastors.

WARREN. Miss Carol died February 25 of pneumonia, living less than a week after her illness. Her father, H. Bruce of Riverside had been hired to run the creamery and will move his family here soon. Mrs. William Elliott is in poor health. Gabe Senner will move this week to the farm he bought of A. E. Eldridge. E. H. Elliott was in Waterbury Saturday.

MIDDLESEX. Mrs. Walter Carr of South Barre is aiding in the care of her grandmother, who is very low. Mrs. Arthur Tate has gone from Mrs. A. C. Moulton's to her father's home in Moretown. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hills visited in Shady Hill the first of the week. H. Comstock has purchased the John Bean, Jr. farm and is to take possession the first of April. Dr. Stephenson is moving this week to Barre. Dr. Johnson comes this week to take up the practice of Dr. Stephenson. His family will be here next week. Presiding Elder Hunt of St. Albans will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday. Mrs. L. O. Wilder and son were in town the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodward. Harry Brooks went Monday to Brattleboro to close the trade for a farm which he purchased last week. Henry Brothers moved his family to Brattleboro Wednesday to the farm he purchased of H. Flint. Mrs. Fred Gaff is very low with no hopes of recovery. The young friends of George Alexander from Montpelier to the number of sixty-one met Friday evening at Silver Lodge Lodge to have

last evening was in charge of the Rev. Alfred J. Wilson.

The marriage of Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamville and Miss Mary T. Foster of East Montpelier will take place in the Church of the Messiah Thursday evening, March 11, at eight o'clock.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Ellis died Saturday night after a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon by the Rev. G. L. Fortier and the body was placed in the tomb at Elmwood. The child was three weeks old. The Rev. G. L. Fortier assumed the pastorate of the Universalist Church Monday and will come here from St. Albans today. Mrs. John Nichols of Lyndon, Mrs. James C. Barre and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Concord, N. H., are in town, being called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Leonard Persons. Mrs. Persons recently suffered from a stroke which rendered her helpless on one side of her body. Her condition is considered critical owing in part to her advanced age.

Local Forecaster W. A. Shaw of the United States weather reports a mean temperature for February of 19 degrees, with a maximum of 32 on the 5th and a minimum of 17 below zero on the 4th. It was the warmest February since 1893. The average temperature of the month for the last 22 years being 15 degrees. The precipitation for the month amounted to 4.55 inches. The snowfall being 12.7 inches. It was the heaviest February precipitation in 22 years, the average for the month for that period being 2.82 inches. The prevailing wind was from the north, the total movement 6.66 miles, the average hourly velocity 9 miles and the maximum hourly velocity 26 miles, from the northwest on the 6th. The month was made up of eight clear, 11 cloudy, 11 rainy and 11 snowy days. Precipitation occurred on 14 days. Solar halos were noted on the 7th, 9th and 23d, and snow fell on the 16th, 19th, 26th and 27th. Martin Gellish, 75 years old, died Monday at his home at South Northfield following a general decline in health of several months' duration. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wheeler, and a son, George H. of Hartford, Conn., who was in town to attend the funeral which was held from the residence at the south village at two o'clock yesterday. The members of DeWitt Clinton Lodge of Masons attended. Mrs. Gellish was the center of the family. She was a regular attendant of the Episcopals who were closely identified with the early history of Northfield. He held various town offices with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. John Hurley, a cutter, was known here and in Montpelier, was taken to the State hospital at Waterbury Tuesday morning. He has been in feeble health for several months. Monday night he became seriously deranged and committed painful injuries upon his wife and daughter.

WATERBURY. Robert W. Palmer, principal of the London high school, is at home for a two weeks' vacation. Andrew Brown returned to Burlington Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gay C. Scott, who were recently married at Hartford, Conn., arrived here Sunday evening. E. H. Lyford has purchased the Burleigh estate the home place for Rudolph Lyford. Mr. Lyford Bagley has returned from a week's visit in Burlington. Edward Cooley, who has been employed in Burlington, has returned and began work Monday with the Cooley Manufacturing company. Dr. E. H. Steele, Jr., is confined to the house by illness. Miss Stannard was at home from Montpelier Monday.

Following are the town officers: L. C. Moody, moderator; J. K. Fullerton, town clerk; G. W. Grover, first selectman; L. J. Roberts, second selectman; S. W. Gould, third selectman; C. C. Graves, treasurer; W. E. Thompson, overseer of the poor; W. O'Neill, constable and collector; C. Moody, J. A. Parker and E. B. Towne, auditors; C. C. Graves, trustee public money; George W. Morse, town grand juror; M. C. Barber, road commissioner; L. C. Moody, agent to prosecute and defend suits; L. C. Moody, school director for three years; H. C. Robinson, first lister for one year; G. W. Morse for two years; W. J. O'Neill for three years; Mrs. A. Lynde, school commissioner for five years; Dr. G. S. Edwell for two years; A. H. Smith, cemetery commissioner for five years; $350 was voted for permanent roads and a tax of 10 cents was voted.

The village officers elected Monday evening follow: H. C. Whitfield, president; E. E. Campbell, first trustee; E. E. Campbell, second trustee; J. K. Fullerton, clerk; E. J. Joshy, treasurer; W. J. O'Neill, collector of taxes; F. L. Knight, L. C. Moody and C. C. Graves, auditors; Frank Town, chief engineer; O. A. Lavelle, first assistant engineer; Horace Tatro, second assistant engineer; Frank Williams, Henry Carpenter and W. J. Redmond and B. E. Atcherson, the wardens; H. W. Borden, water commissioner; L. C. Moody, assessor; the village officers have bonds of the village not to exceed the sum of $25,000 to retire orders drawn to pay the expenses of the sewer system.

MORETOWN. During the past month there were 25 special Evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. An unusual interest has been manifested in the church since the first of the week. During this time twenty have been baptized. The Rev. G. P. Crowford, the pastor, has been assisted by several of the neighboring pastors.

WARREN. Miss Carol died February 25 of pneumonia, living less than a week after her illness. Her father, H. Bruce of Riverside had been hired to run the creamery and will move his family here soon. Mrs. William Elliott is in poor health. Gabe Senner will move this week to the farm he bought of A. E. Eldridge. E. H. Elliott was in Waterbury Saturday.

MIDDLESEX. Mrs. Walter Carr of South Barre is aiding in the care of her grandmother, who is very low. Mrs. Arthur Tate has gone from Mrs. A. C. Moulton's to her father's home in Moretown. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hills visited in Shady Hill the first of the week. H. Comstock has purchased the John Bean, Jr. farm and is to take possession the first of April. Dr. Stephenson is moving this week to Barre. Dr. Johnson comes this week to take up the practice of Dr. Stephenson. His family will be here next week. Presiding Elder Hunt of St. Albans will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday. Mrs. L. O. Wilder and son were in town the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodward. Harry Brooks went Monday to Brattleboro to close the trade for a farm which he purchased last week. Henry Brothers moved his family to Brattleboro Wednesday to the farm he purchased of H. Flint. Mrs. Fred Gaff is very low with no hopes of recovery. The young friends of George Alexander from Montpelier to the number of sixty-one met Friday evening at Silver Lodge Lodge to have

last evening was in charge of the Rev. Alfred J. Wilson.

The marriage of Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamville and Miss Mary T. Foster of East Montpelier will take place in the Church of the Messiah Thursday evening, March 11, at eight o'clock.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Ellis died Saturday night after a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon by the Rev. G. L. Fortier and the body was placed in the tomb at Elmwood. The child was three weeks old. The Rev. G. L. Fortier assumed the pastorate of the Universalist Church Monday and will come here from St. Albans today. Mrs. John Nichols of Lyndon, Mrs. James C. Barre and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Concord, N. H., are in town, being called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Leonard Persons. Mrs. Persons recently suffered from a stroke which rendered her helpless on one side of her body. Her condition is considered critical owing in part to her advanced age.

Local Forecaster W. A. Shaw of the United States weather reports a mean temperature for February of 19 degrees, with a maximum of 32 on the 5th and a minimum of 17 below zero on the 4th. It was the warmest February since 1893. The average temperature of the month for the last 22 years being 15 degrees. The precipitation for the month amounted to 4.55 inches. The snowfall being 12.7 inches. It was the heaviest February precipitation in 22 years, the average for the month for that period being 2.82 inches. The prevailing wind was from the north, the total movement 6.66 miles, the average hourly velocity 9 miles and the maximum hourly velocity 26 miles, from the northwest on the 6th. The month was made up of eight clear, 11 cloudy, 11 rainy and 11 snowy days. Precipitation occurred on 14 days. Solar halos were noted on the 7th, 9th and 23d, and snow fell on the 16th, 19th, 26th and 27th. Martin Gellish, 75 years old, died Monday at his home at South Northfield following a general decline in health of several months' duration. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wheeler, and a son, George H. of Hartford, Conn., who was in town to attend the funeral which was held from the residence at the south village at two o'clock yesterday. The members of DeWitt Clinton Lodge of Masons attended. Mrs. Gellish was the center of the family. She was a regular attendant of the Episcopals who were closely identified with the early history of Northfield. He held various town offices with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. John Hurley, a cutter, was known here and in Montpelier, was taken to the State hospital at Waterbury Tuesday morning. He has been in feeble health for several months. Monday night he became seriously deranged and committed painful injuries upon his wife and daughter.

WATERBURY. Robert W. Palmer, principal of the London high school, is at home for a two weeks' vacation. Andrew Brown returned to Burlington Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gay C. Scott, who were recently married at Hartford, Conn., arrived here Sunday evening. E. H. Lyford has purchased the Burleigh estate the home place for Rudolph Lyford. Mr. Lyford Bagley has returned from a week's visit in Burlington. Edward Cooley, who has been employed in Burlington, has returned and began work Monday with the Cooley Manufacturing company. Dr. E. H. Steele, Jr., is confined to the house by illness. Miss Stannard was at home from Montpelier Monday.

Following are the town officers: L. C. Moody, moderator; J. K. Fullerton, town clerk; G. W. Grover, first selectman; L. J. Roberts, second selectman; S. W. Gould, third selectman; C. C. Graves, treasurer; W. E. Thompson, overseer of the poor; W. O'Neill, constable and collector; C. Moody, J. A. Parker and E. B. Towne, auditors; C. C. Graves, trustee public money; George W. Morse, town grand juror; M. C. Barber, road commissioner; L. C. Moody, agent to prosecute and defend suits; L. C. Moody, school director for three years; H. C. Robinson, first lister for one year; G. W. Morse for two years; W. J. O'Neill for three years; Mrs. A. Lynde, school commissioner for five years; Dr. G. S. Edwell for two years; A. H. Smith, cemetery commissioner for five years; $350 was voted for permanent roads and a tax of 10 cents was voted.

The village officers elected Monday evening follow: H. C. Whitfield, president; E. E. Campbell, first trustee; E. E. Campbell, second trustee; J. K. Fullerton, clerk; E. J. Joshy, treasurer; W. J. O'Neill, collector of taxes; F. L. Knight, L. C. Moody and C. C. Graves, auditors; Frank Town, chief engineer; O. A. Lavelle, first assistant engineer; Horace Tatro, second assistant engineer; Frank Williams, Henry Carpenter and W. J. Redmond and B. E. Atcherson, the wardens; H. W. Borden, water commissioner; L. C. Moody, assessor; the village officers have bonds of the village not to exceed the sum of $25,000 to retire orders drawn to pay the expenses of the sewer system.

MORETOWN. During the past month there were 25 special Evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. An unusual interest has been manifested in the church since the first of the week. During this time twenty have been baptized. The Rev. G. P. Crowford, the pastor, has been assisted by several of the neighboring pastors.

WARREN. Miss Carol died February 25 of pneumonia, living less than a week after her illness. Her father, H. Bruce of Riverside had been hired to run the creamery and will move his family here soon. Mrs. William Elliott is in poor health. Gabe Senner will move this week to the farm he bought of A. E. Eldridge. E. H. Elliott was in Waterbury Saturday.

MIDDLESEX. Mrs. Walter Carr of South Barre is aiding in the care of her grandmother, who is very low. Mrs. Arthur Tate has gone from Mrs. A. C. Moulton's to her father's home in Moretown. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hills visited in Shady Hill the first of the week. H. Comstock has purchased the John Bean, Jr. farm and is to take possession the first of April. Dr. Stephenson is moving this week to Barre. Dr. Johnson comes this week to take up the practice of Dr. Stephenson. His family will be here next week. Presiding Elder Hunt of St. Albans will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday. Mrs. L. O. Wilder and son were in town the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodward. Harry Brooks went Monday to Brattleboro to close the trade for a farm which he purchased last week. Henry Brothers moved his family to Brattleboro Wednesday to the farm he purchased of H. Flint. Mrs. Fred Gaff is very low with no hopes of recovery. The young friends of George Alexander from Montpelier to the number of sixty-one met Friday evening at Silver Lodge Lodge to have

last evening was in charge of the Rev. Alfred J. Wilson.

The marriage of Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamville and Miss Mary T. Foster of East Montpelier will take place in the Church of the Messiah Thursday evening, March 11, at eight o'clock.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Ellis died Saturday night after a brief illness. Funeral services were conducted at the home Monday afternoon by the Rev. G. L. Fortier and the body was placed in the tomb at Elmwood. The child was three weeks old. The Rev. G. L. Fortier assumed the pastorate of the Universalist Church Monday and will come here from St. Albans today. Mrs. John Nichols of Lyndon, Mrs. James C. Barre and Mrs. C. A. Brown of Concord, N. H., are in town, being called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Leonard Persons. Mrs. Persons recently suffered from a stroke which rendered her helpless on one side of her body. Her condition is considered critical owing in part to her advanced age.

Local Forecaster W. A. Shaw of the United States weather reports a mean temperature for February of 19 degrees, with a maximum of 32 on the 5th and a minimum of 17 below zero on the 4th. It was the warmest February since 1893. The average temperature of the month for the last 22 years being 15 degrees. The precipitation for the month amounted to 4.55 inches. The snowfall being 12.7 inches. It was the heaviest February precipitation in 22 years, the average for the month for that period being 2.82 inches. The prevailing wind was from the north, the total movement 6.66 miles, the average hourly velocity 9 miles and the maximum hourly velocity 26 miles, from the northwest on the 6th. The month was made up of eight clear, 11 cloudy, 11 rainy and 11 snowy days. Precipitation occurred on 14 days. Solar halos were noted on the 7th, 9th and 23d, and snow fell on the 16th, 19th, 26th and 27th. Martin Gellish, 75 years old, died Monday at his home at South Northfield following a general decline in health of several months' duration. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Wheeler, and a son, George H. of Hartford, Conn., who was in town to attend the funeral which was held from the residence at the south village at two o'clock yesterday. The members of DeWitt Clinton Lodge of Masons attended. Mrs. Gellish was the center of the family. She was a regular attendant of the Episcopals who were closely identified with the early history of Northfield. He held various town offices with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. John Hurley, a cutter, was known here and in Montpelier, was taken to the State hospital at Waterbury Tuesday morning. He has been in feeble health for several months. Monday night he became seriously deranged and committed painful injuries upon his wife and daughter.

WATERBURY. Robert W. Palmer, principal of the London high school, is at home for a two weeks' vacation. Andrew Brown returned to Burlington Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Gay C. Scott, who were recently married at Hartford, Conn., arrived here Sunday evening. E. H. Lyford has purchased the Burleigh estate the home place for Rudolph Lyford. Mr. Lyford Bagley has returned from a week's visit in Burlington. Edward Cooley, who has been employed in Burlington, has returned and began work Monday with the Cooley Manufacturing company. Dr. E. H. Steele, Jr., is confined to the house by illness. Miss Stannard was at home from Montpelier Monday.

Following are the town officers: L. C. Moody, moderator; J. K. Fullerton, town clerk; G. W. Grover, first selectman; L. J. Roberts, second selectman; S. W. Gould, third selectman; C. C. Graves, treasurer; W. E. Thompson, overseer of the poor; W. O'Neill, constable and collector; C. Moody, J. A. Parker and E. B. Towne, auditors; C. C. Graves, trustee public money; George W. Morse, town grand juror; M. C. Barber, road commissioner; L. C. Moody, agent to prosecute and defend suits; L. C. Moody, school director for three years; H. C. Robinson, first lister for one year; G. W. Morse for two years; W. J. O'Neill for three years; Mrs. A. Lynde, school commissioner for five years; Dr. G. S. Edwell for two years; A. H. Smith, cemetery commissioner for five years; $350 was voted for permanent roads and a tax of 10 cents was voted.

The village officers elected Monday evening follow: H. C. Whitfield, president; E. E. Campbell, first trustee; E. E. Campbell, second trustee; J. K. Fullerton, clerk; E. J. Joshy, treasurer; W. J. O'Neill, collector of taxes; F. L. Knight, L. C. Moody and C. C. Graves, auditors; Frank Town, chief engineer; O. A. Lavelle, first assistant engineer; Horace Tatro, second assistant engineer; Frank Williams, Henry Carpenter and W. J. Redmond and B. E. Atcherson, the wardens; H. W. Borden, water commissioner; L. C. Moody, assessor; the village officers have bonds of the village not to exceed the sum of $25,000 to retire orders drawn to pay the expenses of the sewer system.

MORETOWN. During the past month there were 25 special Evangelistic services in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this place. An unusual interest has been manifested in the church since the first of the week. During this time twenty have been baptized. The Rev. G. P. Crowford, the pastor, has been assisted by several of the neighboring pastors.

WARREN. Miss Carol died February 25 of pneumonia, living less than a week after her illness. Her father, H. Bruce of Riverside had been hired to run the creamery and will move his family here soon. Mrs. William Elliott is in poor health. Gabe Senner will move this week to the farm he bought of A. E. Eldridge. E. H. Elliott was in Waterbury Saturday.

MIDDLESEX. Mrs. Walter Carr of South Barre is aiding in the care of her grandmother, who is very low. Mrs. Arthur Tate has gone from Mrs. A. C. Moulton's to her father's home in Moretown. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hills visited in Shady Hill the first of the week. H. Comstock has purchased the John Bean, Jr. farm and is to take possession the first of April. Dr. Stephenson is moving this week to Barre. Dr. Johnson comes this week to take up the practice of Dr. Stephenson. His family will be here next week. Presiding Elder Hunt of St. Albans will preach at the Methodist Church Sunday. Mrs. L. O. Wilder and son were in town the first of the week to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary Woodward. Harry Brooks went Monday to Brattleboro to close the trade for a farm which he purchased last week. Henry Brothers moved his family to Brattleboro Wednesday to the farm he purchased of H. Flint. Mrs. Fred Gaff is very low with no hopes of recovery. The young friends of George Alexander from Montpelier to the number of sixty-one met Friday evening at Silver Lodge Lodge to have

last evening was in charge of the Rev. Alfred J. Wilson.

The marriage of Ralph W. Putnam of Putnamville and Miss Mary T. Foster of East Montpelier will take place in the Church of the Messiah Thursday evening, March 11, at eight o'clock.

SOUTH WOODBURY.

Henry Tebbitts gives possession of his farm to E. J. Banks. April 1. Dick Bateholder was in town last Friday. At the auction sale on the Dickey place last Saturday most of the property was sold. The farm is in the hands of Harry Daniels. The Grange have a box supper and entertainment next Saturday night. Gladys Goodell has returned from Boston. Laura LeBaron, who has been visiting at R. M. Pray's, has returned to her home. The Ladies' Aid have a fish supper at the vestry Wednesday evening. Henry Wells was in town Monday on business.

WAITSFIELD.

Officers were elected at Tuesday's town meeting as follows: Moderator, R. D. Bishop; town clerk, R. J. Gleason; selectmen, P. P. Wilder, W. C. Joslin, E. A. Fisk; listers, E. S. Joslin, P. C. Carroll, W. C. Kelley treasurer, H. N. Bushnell; overseer of the poor, P. P. Wilder; list constable, E. H. Jones; 2nd constable, J. E. Jones; auditors, G. W. Wallis, D. B. Ebbes, W. E. Jones; town grand juror, W. C. McAllister; law agent, D. R. Bateholder; road commissioner, J. A. Smith; school director, W. E. Jones; cemetery commissioner, P. H. Cayford; library trustee, M. J. D. Davis; tax, 15 cents on the dollar; "Police Quarter of the Plover," will be given by sixteen young ladies at 10 o'clock this evening. Howard Russell has rented W. McAllister's blacksmith shop. Louis Whitehead has moved to Duxbury where he will work for Charles Allen the cordage company. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller February 25. E. P. Palmer of Duxbury and Mr. and Mrs. Cady of Northfield were in town Monday to attend the funeral of P. P. Carroll of Warren which was held at the Methodist church. Mrs. and Mrs. H. N. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Chase were in town on the latter part of last week. A union service was held at the Methodist church Sunday morning. About 50 members of ally Lodge and Maple Rebekah Lodge attended in a body.

WORCESTER.

Town meeting Tuesday was a very quiet affair, less than half the voters being present. The officers elected were: Moderator, H. L. Abbott; clerk, Jessie M. Putnam; selectmen, P. P. Towles, E. E. Gray, Thomas Sennels; overseer, A. B. Tewksbury; road commissioner, G. P. Bolton; school directors, M. S. Horner, E. E. Kellor, J. L. Farley; auditors, E. W. Johnson, C. C. Tewksbury, Fred Black, C. L. Curtis; auditors, M. S. Horner, H. L. Abbott, P. B. Alexander; trustee public money, M. P. Wheeler; grand juror, H. M. Cross, E. E. Howland; town agent, M. P. Wheeler; treasurer, C. C. Tewksbury; tax, $1.75; vote on license, yes 28, no 22.

DUXBURY.

The following officers were elected at Tuesday's town meeting: Moderator, R. D. Bishop; town clerk, R. J. Gleason; selectmen, P. P. Wilder, W. C. Joslin, E. A. Fisk; listers, E. S. Joslin, P. C. Carroll, W. C. Kelley treasurer, H. N. Bushnell; overseer of the poor, P. P. Wilder; list constable, E. H. Jones; 2nd constable, J. E. Jones; auditors, G. W. Wallis, D. B. Ebbes, W. E. Jones; town grand juror, W. C. McAllister; law agent, D. R. Bateholder; road commissioner, J. A. Smith; school director, W. E. Jones; cemetery commissioner, P. H. Cayford; library trustee, M. J. D. Davis; tax, 15 cents on the dollar; "Police Quarter of the Plover," will be given by sixteen young ladies at 10 o'clock this evening. Howard Russell has rented W. McAllister's blacksmith shop. Louis Whitehead has moved to Duxbury where he will work for Charles Allen the cordage company. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller February 25. E. P. Palmer of Duxbury and Mr. and Mrs. Cady of Northfield were in town Monday to attend the funeral of P. P. Carroll of Warren which was held at the Methodist church. Mrs. and Mrs. H. N. Russell and Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Chase were in town on the latter part of last week. A union service was held at the Methodist church Sunday morning. About 50 members of ally Lodge and Maple Rebekah Lodge attended in a body.

WINDSOR COUNTY.

BETHEL.

Edwin Arnold succeeds W. J. Gould as bookkeeper at the Ellis quarry office